4. Once logged in, click See more within the CME Overview pod. This will take you to a page with a transcript of all the courses you have taken with TMLT/LSA. Before purchasing and taking a CME, it's always a good idea to look at your transcript so you do not duplicate a course. Duplicate courses will not be honored for the discount. When you are ready to take a course, click the Online CME Courses button, which will take you to our online CME portal, InReach. From there, follow the directions below to take a CME course.

Addressing Transgender Health Care

Recently, there has been a dramatic increase in the awareness of transgender people and the issues they face. TMLT Risk Management staff members have reported an increase in questions from health care professionals about how to appropriately care for transgender patients. This article addresses some of these questions and concerns. Please note that this CME activity does not meet TMLT's discount criteria... Read more »

Avoiding (and winning) Lawsuits, Board Matters, and Peer Review

As physicians, the threat of a possible lawsuit, board action, or professional review comes with the territory. When a physician receives a letter threatening a potential legal action, about half of those letters result in a lawsuit. For some physicians, Texas Medical Board matters or peer review
